Data published: 9 June 2008

Data published annually, next update will be June 2009.

Note: Data is not supported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS).

Wage data is produced from Texas OES data, and is not to be compared to BLS estimates.

Data intended for TAC 313 purposes only.

exceeded the state average of 1.4 percent for the same time period. This increase is measured against a relatively a small total employment base—920 workers in Oldham County.

At the same time, incomes in Oldham County continue to lag behind that for the state as a whole. In terms of per capita income, Oldham County's $24,333 in 2006 was 69.2 percent of the 2006 Texas average of $35,166.

Oil and gas production and agriculture are two primary industries in Oldham County, but the county is subject to cyclical trends in the economy. For 2006, the value of oil and gas production was estimated to be $4.5 million in Oldham County, while agricultural cash value averaged $77.5 million annually from 2004 to 2007 in Oldham County.

Taxable sales data indicate the modest level of current economic activity in Oldham County. In the first quarter of 2008, taxable sales totaled $1.1 million in Oldham County. This figure reflects a 1.4 percent increase from the year-earlier quarter, but the sales tax base in Oldham County remains relatively small compared with larger counties with substantial commercial activity.

Given recent population trends and income levels, Oldham County needs additional economic activity like that associated with the Wildorado Wind project to enhance the long-term prospects for the local economy.

Board Finding Number 3.

The average salary level of qualifying jobs is expected to be at least $41,600 per year. The review of the application by the State Comptroller's Office indicated that this amount—based on Texas Workforce Commission data—complies with the requirement that qualifying jobs must pay 110 percent of the county average manufacturing wage. Wildorado Wind indicates that total employment will be approximately four (4) new jobs.

Based on data provided by the Texas Workforce Commission, the average manufacturing wage for the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission (which includes Oldham County) is $36,379 annually. Based upon the information provided to the District with regard to the industry standard for staffing ratios of wind farm projects in the State of Texas, the District has determined that if the job creation requirement set forth in Texas Tax Code § 313.051(b) (i.e., 10 jobs for this 29-turbine project) was applied, for the size and scope of the project described in the Application, the required number of jobs would exceed the industry standard for the number of employees reasonably necessary for the operation of the facility.
